Full-time MBA Employment Report

Class of 2023

Samantha Sutton, MBA '23

It is with great pride that we present the Georgia Tech Scheller Full-time MBA Class of 2023 Employment Report.

Scheller MBA graduates continue to accomplish remarkable employment outcomes amid a business environment full of change and uncertainty. In fact, our Class of 2023 graduates achieved the highest ever average starting salary – a 12.25% increase from the previous year.

In the Jones MBA Career Center, we are dedicated to helping students represent their best selves. Each student's journey is unique. Our aim is to deeply understand their motivations and goals as we work with them to achieve career transformation.

As we cheer on our graduates, we are also busy at work guiding the next generations of students as they discover their potential and create their own success stories.

An MBA Experience That Builds Leaders

Top-Ranked Career Services

The Jones MBA Career Center team is dedicated to guiding students through their career transformation. With a small ratio of students to career advisors, the Center is mindful of the changing interests of MBA candidates seeking jobs and the evolving needs of MBA employers. Whether it's making a career switch, starting a new venture, or leveling up, the Center team helps you get there. Here are some of the opportunities to engage.

Career Development Opportunities

Workshops: Our Career Development Workshop is a weeklong orientation prior to the start of school that continues into the fall semester. The CDW is designed to help students get a head start on summer internship and post-graduate job searches. Throughout the school year, students meet for workshops with peers and advisors where they learn key career search skills.

MBA conferences and career fairs: Career advisors and students participate in several Georgia Tech career fairs and the nation's largest association and industry career fairs.

Career resources: Students can take advantage of the many resources and programming we provide like interview prep, Career Leader (a self-assessment tool used by more than 260 top business schools to identify student career interests), and more.

Alumni career resources: Career support is lifelong. MBA alumni career services include career advice and workshops, Georgia Tech Alumni Association groups, and more.

Curriculum for a Tech-Driven World

In addition to a 21-credit core curriculum that builds a foundation in business fundamentals, the Scheller MBA program offers 14 specialized, STEM-designated concentrations. Specializations serve as helpful guides to navigating elective coursework and signify areas of specialty to future employers.

Scheller MBAs develop deep expertise in emerging business areas through hands-on projects with Fortune 500 companies, non-profits, incubators, and startups. Guest speakers, networking events, and industry panels help round out the experiential learning experience.

Jones MBA Career Center Impact

The Jones MBA Career Center is ready to work with students every step of the way to provide guidance and support throughout the program. This career transformation timeline gives students an idea of what to expect when working with the Center.

Pre-MBA Summer Preparation

In May of your acceptance year, you'll receive important homework that will help you clarify your career goals, learn about networking and recruitment opportunities, and more. Once you submit your summer assignments, you'll meet your advisor and start outlining your MBA studies and career prep process.

Your First Year

Immerse yourself with the Scheller community during the two-week orientation in August. You'll meet new classmates, the MBA program team, and prepare for your internship search.

Throughout the first year, you can participate in career development workshops, employer information sessions, career fairs, and more. You'll start practicing for internship interviews in October, and engage in 'mock' interviews which will fully qualify you for the peak interview season from November to February. Summer internships go from May to August.

Your Second Year

Your second year will continue with increased opportunities for major-specific elective coursework, international practicums, and a focus on acquiring a full-time job offer. Our advisors continue to support you in your second year with resume feedback and more.

Class of 2023 Testimonials

"The Jones MBA Career Center was a key reason I chose Scheller. I knew I wanted to make a career pivot and wanted guidance and support in doing so. Before our first semester began, we had assignments to structure our resumes and cover letters to prepare for the internship search, which was incredibly helpful. I felt prepared to enter recruitment season in the field I want to be in."

Stacy Feeling, MBA '23

Pre-MBA Career: Electrical Project Engineer, Bosch Rexroth
Post-MBA Career: General Management Development Program, Fortive

"The Jones MBA Career Center has connected me to several alumni who I am now proud to call my friends. I was told before joining Georgia Tech that the Scheller I experienced this myself during my summer internship where I was able to connect with alumni in Dallas and build my network there."

Leo Haigh, MBA '23

Pre-MBA Career: Government Relations Manager, Sage
Post-MBA Career: Senior Analyst, Distribution Strategy, American Airlines

"Before submitting my application, I connected with the Jones MBA Career Center. They gave me real, tangible advice about what they look for in candidates, which allowed me to think about what type of candidate I was, emphasize my strengths, and develop a robust application."

Kyra Hankin, MBA '23

Pre-MBA Career: Senior Accountant, EF International Language Campuses
Post-MBA Career: Senior Strategy Consultant, Accenture

"I would say that without the incredible help and guidance of the fantastic people at the Jones MBA Career Center, I wouldn't have been able to get my dream job. I also think that every one of my classmates has helped me grow and pushed me to be better and reach my full potential."

Yuval Safra, MBA '23
